THE WORD OF GOD

THE COLLECT OF THE DAY

BCP 232

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Let us pray.

Grant, O merciful God, that your Church, being gathered together in unity by your Holy Spirit, may show forth your power among all peoples, to the glory of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

§ Please be seated

THE FIRST LESSON

Isaiah 51:1-6

Listen to me, you that pursue righteousness, you that seek the Lord. Look to the rock from which you were hewn, and to the quarry from which you were dug. Look to Abraham your father and to Sarah who bore you; for he was but one when I called him, but I blessed him and made him many. For the Lord will comfort Zion; he will comfort all her waste places, and will make her wilderness like Eden, her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness will be found in her, thanksgiving and the voice of song. Listen to me, my people, and give heed to me, my nation; for a teaching will go out from me, and my justice for a light to the peoples. I will bring near my deliverance swiftly, my salvation has gone out and my arms will rule the peoples; the coastlands wait for me, and for my arm they hope. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look at the earth beneath; for the heavens will vanish like smoke, the earth will wear out like a garment, and those who live on it will die like gnats; but my salvation will be forever, and my deliverance will never be ended.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

- 1 I will give thanks to you, O LORD, with my whole / heart; *
before the gods I will sing your / praise.
- 2 I will bow down toward your holy temple and praise your / Name, *
because of your love and / faithfulness;
- 3 For you have glorified your / Name *
and your word above all / things.
- 4 When I called, you / answered me; *
you increased my strength with/in me.
- 5 All the kings of the earth will praise you, O / LORD, *

you stretch forth your hand against the fury of my enemies;
your right hand shall / save me.
- 9 The LORD will make good his purpose for / me; *
O LORD, your love endures for ever;
do not abandon the works of your / hands.

THE SECOND LESSON

Romans 12:1-8

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God — what is good and acceptable and perfect. For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think, but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members, and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the exhorter, in exhortation; the giver, in generosity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Matthew 16:13-20

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ
according to Matthew.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When Jesus came into the district of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say that the Son of Man is?" And they said, "Some say John the Baptist, but others Elijah, and still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets." He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Simon Peter answered, "You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God." And Jesus answered him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah! For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my Father in heaven. And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." Then he sternly ordered the disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Messiah.

THE SERMON

The Right Rev. Christopher Senyonjo

THE NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.

Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven:

by the power of the Holy Spirit

he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.

He has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,

and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Ho - san - na in the high - est.' The music features a mix of quarter, eighth, and sixteenth notes, with some rests and ties. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and moving lines.

The Presider continues

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

Presider and People

We celebrate his death and resurrection,
as we await the day of his coming.

God of our holy and righteous ancestors; God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob; God of Miriam, Deborah, Hannah, and Naomi; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. ✠ Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

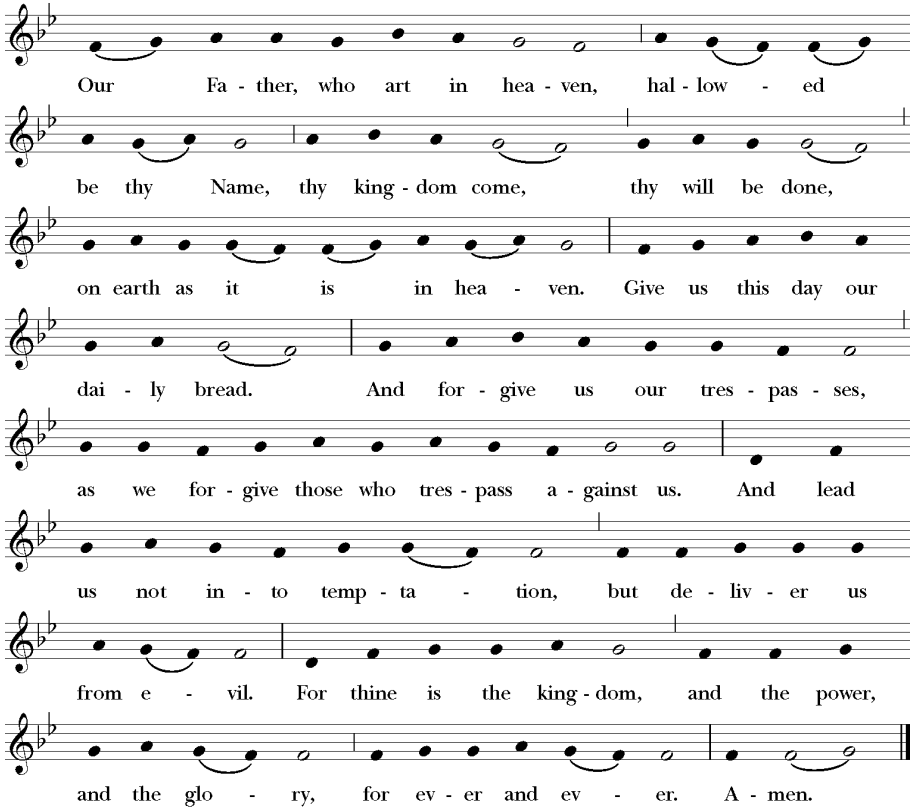

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

The Episcopal Church at Work: Jubilee Ministry Grants

August 21, 2011 – Tenth Sunday After Pentecost

The Jubilee Ministry engages congregations in the important work of empowering people to change their lives, fighting against poverty and inequity, and lifting up strong communities. The Jubilee Ministry website (www.episcopalchurch.org/jubilee) describes this as “faith in action – loving God with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength by loving our neighbors as ourselves.”

Grants to Jubilee Ministries are awarded annually to congregations or agencies with connections to the Episcopal Church whose mission efforts affect the lives of those in need, addressing basic human needs and justice issues.

“No one knows the needs and challenges, or the hopes and dreams of a local community better than its residents,” said the Rev. Christopher A. Johnson, the Episcopal Church’s officer for Social and Economic Justice. “So, it’s a privilege for Jubilee Ministry to support the building of vital local relationships between Episcopal ministries and the communities they serve through these funding opportunities.”

For guidelines, additional information, and to apply for any of the grants, go to www.episcopalchurch.org/jubilee.

From the documentary “Jubilee” (<http://episcopalchurch.org/multimedia/jubilee>)

Applications for Jubilee Ministry grants for mission and ministry throughout the Episcopal Church are now being accepted in the following four categories.

- Grants Funding Diocesan Initiatives: These grants of $1,000 will support Jubilee Ministry development plans of the local bishop and the appointed diocesan Jubilee officer. Up to 50 grants are available (limit one grant per diocese). Applications are due October 1, 2011.
- Health and Nutrition: These grants of $750 are for Jubilee Ministries that respond to the nutritional needs of people living in “food deserts,” which is defined as communities in which residents have no easy access to fresh produce and must rely on convenience stores or fast-food restaurants to provide their meals. Applications are due October 1, 2011.
- Jubilee Ministry Asset-Based Community Development Workshop: These grants of $5,000 per workshop event are for dioceses hosting two-day Asset Based Community Development (ABCD) training workshops featuring ABCD Institute trainer Mike Green. Six ABCD workshops will be funded in 2012. Applications are due December 30, 2011.
- 2012 Summer Camps: These $1,000 grants are to promote summer camp programs that target either youth literacy or children of the incarcerated. Thirty grants will be awarded in March 2012. Applications are due December 30, 2011.
