

Dear Artists,

In commemoration of the 65th anniversary of the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, St. Paul's Cathedral Center for Performing and Visual Arts will be presenting a juried art exhibit this coming August 2010 entitled "Images of Peace on Earth." We invite you to submit artwork(s) which represent(s) your expression of this theme for possible presentation in the Cathedral. What are your visions of peace on earth?

The exhibit will be held in the main space of St. Paul's Cathedral at 5th & Nutmeg in San Diego beginning on Sunday, August 1, 2010 and continuing through August 31, 2010. There will be monetary awards given for best presentations in the exhibition.

You may download an application from our website www.stpaulcathedral.org or request an application from Richard Lief, Canon for the Arts at lief@stpaulcathedral.org or by telephone at 619.298.7261 x356. Your application, along with digital representations of your artwork, need to be submitted by July 15, 2010 to the same email address.

All media may be submitted, subject to approval, with dimensions not to exceed 3'W x 5'H for 2-D work. Work must be framed with hanging wire attached to the back. If you are submitting a 3-D work, please specify the size. Each work must have a label attached to the back upper right corner that contains: Name, Title, Medium.

There is an entry fee of $15.00 total for up to 3 works. Artwork may be for sale with a 25% suggested donation to St. Paul's Cathedral to support our continuing visual arts program. Please note on your application the price of the work and contact information for sales (email or telephone). The information on pricing will appear in the catalog, not on the artwork label. Your name, media, and contact information will be printed on the label.

Notifications of work accepted by the Juror into the exhibit will be by email or phone no later than Tuesday, July 20, 2010.

On Monday, July 26, accepted artwork is to be brought to St. Paul's Cathedral, 5th & Nutmeg in San Diego between the hours of 10am and 4pm. Artwork will be registered in the Cathedral. There will be signs to direct you to the exact location within the building.

Sunday, August 1, 2010, the exhibit, "Images of Peace on Earth" will open with a Blessing of the Artists and the Artwork at the 10:30am service at St. Paul's Cathedral, followed by a reception honoring the Artists.

We very much look forward to your participation in "Images of Peace on Earth" - an important topic that has significant impact on all of our lives.

Sincerely,

The Rev. Canon Richard Lief, Canon for the Arts
Christa Vragel, Cathedral Arts Exhibit Coordinator
Ric Todd, Cathedral Artist-in-Residence
